UniPro EVP Scott Strull to Depart in April 2026 after 30 Years of Service

ATLANTA, GA – June 18, 2025 – UniPro Foodservice, Inc. announced that Scott Strull, Executive Vice President of Strategic Business Units, will be stepping down effective April 3, 2026, after an impactful 30-year career with the cooperative. He is launching his own consulting firm, Strull Strategic Solutions, LLC. We appreciate Scott giving us ample notice to help with our overall succession plans which were shared with our Board last Fall. We're pleased to still have Scott with us for the next 10 months.

Strull joined UniPro in 1996 and has held several key leadership roles, most recently overseeing UniPro's strategic business units including Peachtree Freight Logistics, the National Distribution Alliance (NDA), and the Unity Advantage Group (UAG). He also led the Partners Plus program, Marketing, Meetings & Events, and several companywide initiatives. Scott previously managed the UniPro Member Development team responsible for Member program penetration and new Member recruitment and helped to launch the company's Exclusive Brands initiative. A respected industry veteran, Strull's background spans foodservice distribution, retail grocery, chain restaurant operations, and supplier-side leadership. He has been a frequent contributor across national industry forums.

"Scott has played a vital role in UniPro's success," said Bob Stewart, CEO of UniPro. "We thank him for his service and look forward to celebrating his contributions in the coming year."
