POLLAK FOOD DISTRIBUTORS JOINS UNIPRO FOODSERVICE

ATLANTA – UniPro Foodservice announced the addition of Pollak Food Distributors to the UniPro membership, expanding a cooperative built on collaboration, shared expertise, and mutual growth among independent distributors.

Founded in 1982 and headquartered in Cleveland, Ohio, Pollak Food Distributors is a family-owned foodservice distributor serving healthcare, education, restaurant, catering, and institutional customers throughout the Midwest. Now managed by the founder's sons, the company brings more than 70 years of combined foodservice distribution experience and is known for its commitment to service, quality, and customer support.

“Pollak Food Distributors has built a strong reputation rooted in customer-first service and dependable execution across the markets they serve. Their family-owned culture, deep industry expertise, and commitment to supporting operators throughout the Midwest align seamlessly with our cooperative’s values. We are excited to welcome Pollak to UniPro and look forward to partnering to accelerate their continued growth and success,” said Lindsay Farmer, Sr. VP Member Development.

Through its cooperative model, UniPro connects independent distributors and Supplier partners with Member success at the center. By aligning programs, building meaningful partnerships, and leveraging data, UniPro drives growth while preserving independence.

About UniPro Foodservice:
