

SCOTT CARRICO TO CHAIR CONVENIENCE DISTRIBUTION ASSOCIATION

SEPTEMBER 10, 2019 - CHICAGO, IL - The Convenience Distribution Association (CDA) announced today that Scott Carrico, Richmond Master Distributors, South Bend, IN, was elected as Chair for 2020 at the association's Annual Membership Meeting.

Carrico was presented with the customary green jacket and gavel by 2019 CDA Chair Charlie Casper, Mydad LLC dba Hardec's, Elizabethtown, KY, symbolizing the position of CDA Chair during the 2019 Convenience Distribution Business Exchange (CDBX) awards luncheon.

"Scott has served on the CDA Board of directors and executive committee for the last three years," says Casper. "It has been a pleasure to work with Scott in shaping the direction of CDA. Scott's leadership and vision with the Education & Research and Industry Affairs committees has yielded very promising results. He is a very hard worker dedicated to the industry and CDA members. I have no doubt Scott will be very successful in leading CDA and for the betterment of our members."

Carrico, whose father Pat is a past-chair of the association, has been involved with CDA for many years, serving on the Education & Research Committee, as chair of both the Industry Affairs Committee and Finance Committee, and on the association's Board of Directors, and has been a mainstay at CDA events. Currently, he also serves as president of the Indiana Wholesale Distributors Association (IWDA) and is vice president of the Illinois Association of Wholesale Distributors (IAWD). Carrico attended Holy Cross College and Indiana State University, where he studied business.

"Scott brings a long history of industry, business and association experience to the chairmanship of CDA, following in the footsteps of his father, Pat, who is a past chair of the association," said Kimberly Bolin, CDA president and CEO. "He has been a tremendous advocate for the industry with his work on the Industry Affairs Committee, and also instrumental in shaping CDA program in his service on the Education Committee."

"I am humbled by having the honor to serve as chair and look forward to working with Kimberly, the CDA staff, executive committee, board of directors and CDA members," said Carrico.

Carrico lives on his family's farm in Lakeville, IN, with his wife, Trisha Chamberlain, and their three children, Tyler, Alisia and Ava.
