

A NEW REPORT ON CONVENIENCE DISTRIBUTORS'

IMPACT ON THE U.S. ECONOMY

CONVENIENCE DISTRIBUTORS directly employ nearly 59,000 PEOPLE and support over 173,000 JOBS nationally

CONVENIENCE DISTRIBUTION ACTIVITIES supported $102 billion in TOTAL BUSINESS SALES in 2017

The CONVENIENCE DISTRIBUTION SECTOR contributes billions in economic and fiscal activities throughout the U.S. economy, including:

$30+ billion in TOBACCO EXCISE TAX COLLECTED

$13+ billion in TOTAL OUTPUT from indirect suppliers and induced consumer spending

$8.2 billion in NEW ECONOMIC ACTIVITY (GDP) in the sector

$4.5 billion in LABOR INCOME including salary, wages, and benefits

$2.3 billion in TAX REVENUE for federal, state, and local governments

With over 173,000 supported jobs in the U.S. alone, and more than $102 billion in total business impact, the convenience distribution sector has an enormous overall impact on the U.S. economy as a whole.

For the full report on the economic impact of convenience distributors, make sure to visit our website, CDAweb.net/EconReport.

Research supported by the
Distributors Education Foundation, Inc. (DEF)

